

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XX.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 1893.

NO. 94

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Ex-President Hayes was engaged to be married shortly to his cousin, Mrs. Mary Ann Bigelow, of Battlesboro, N. Y. The marriage was put off on account of the death of Mrs. Bigelow's son, a young lawyer, who resided in New York. Mrs. Bigelow is the widow of Wm. A. Bigelow, who was at the time of his death one of the richest citizens of Vermont.

—The Advocate says that George Lewis obtained license Thursday to marry Miss Jennie Duncan, who lives near Junction City. A handsome supper was prepared and arrangements perfected to make the occasion a festive one, but George indulged too lavishly in antenuptial jollification and when the bimortal hour arrived he was in a rather uncertain state of mind and body. The bride expectant became indignant and declared the whole thing off indefinitely.

—The twenty-million-dollar widow of Senator Hearst of California, denies the statement that she is to marry Senator Faulkner, of West Va., and she ought to know. Says she, "How such a story could have originated passes my comprehension, as I never even met the Senator. You may say further that I do not propose to marry any man. When I see such stories as this given wide circulation, I wish I was a man, for I would take effective means to punish the fellows who give them circulation."

THE LEGISLATURE;

—Gov. Brown sent to the Senate the following nominations to comprise the State Board of Equalization: Messrs. R. H. Vanant, of Elliott county; J. S. Phelps, of Fayette; Joseph S. Murray, of Jefferson, and Edward Starks, of Fulton.

—Representative Charlton, of Louisville, made an offensive remark to Representative Bailey, of Carroll, in the House and in a twinkling they were out in the rotunda shedding their coats for a rough and tumble fight. Friends interceded, however, and peace was patched up.

—The Galloway bill, to go to the limit of the constitution and have seven judges at once to hold office eight years, divides the State into that many districts and puts us in the 5th as follows: Henry, Trimble, Carroll, Gallatin, Owen, Scott, Franklin, Bourbon, Fayette, Anderson, Woodford, Garrard, Boyle, Jessamine, Madison, Mercer, Lincoln, Pulaski and Rockcastle. This would make the district strongly democratic.

—The old Howlett House, located on the south bank of James river, opposite Dutch Gap, Va., famous in war annals, has been burned.

—Frank Rush, a brakeman on the Queen and Crescent road, was crushed to death at Williamstown while attempting to couple cars.

—The Capital National Bank, of Lincoln, Neb., has failed and the State treasurer is caught for $250,000. The total deposits amount to about $625,000 and the failure is said to be a bad one.

—The Philadelphia Times says: "One of the disadvantages of sleighing is that the hands must be held out in the cold to drive." Only one hand is held out in the cold to drive, the other is much better employed.

—At Chicago railroad crossings last year 326 people were killed. The number who met death at the hands of the thugs and highwaymen who infest Chicago thoroughfares after the sun sets has not yet been divulged.

—Albert Schilling, a Richmond merchant, went to the county clerk's office and had an oath recorded to the effect that for one year he would not sell goods except for cash, loan money or take a drink of intoxicating liquors.

—A New York shoe dealer has received an order for a minimum pair of shoes from a colored preacher in Georgia. The shoes are 21 inches in length and 7½ inches in width. The measurement over and around the instep is 19½ inches.

—Senator Perkins has given up the contest for return to the Senate from Kansas and a number of new candidates are in the field. The deadlock in the legislature remains unchanged, but it is believed the populists will surrender if the courts decide against them.

Remember that Alfred Keely is direct from his enormous New York City success at the New Park Theatre in his new screamer, Widow Murphy's Goat, under the management of Col. Theodore Hoppenheimer, and will appear at Walton's Opera House, Wednesday night, 25th. This comedy consists of new and original songs and new streaks of fun. London's greatest success plays one year at the Grand Opera House, Chicago, during the World's Fair. Dancing, singing and laughter galore. And it won't come our way again for two years. Can you miss it?

—The New York Ledger has a three-column story of a hero who woos a heroine because he fell in love with the way she made his shirts. This is the longest shirt tale ever exposed to public view.—Glasgow Times.

DANVILLE.

—Mr. Felix Fox, who has been living in Kansas City for a number of years, may concur to again practice law in Danville.

—Milton King, an elderly colored man, and until recently a citizen of Danville, died in a Louisville hospital last week of asthma and other complications.

—Michael O'Keefe, a brother-in-law of Shoemaker John Tracy, and himself of that craft, died Thursday night, after a long illness. He had been blind for several years.

—The residence of Monroe Hickman, a colored man, at the edge of town on the Stanford pike, accidentally burned Friday. Owing to the cold weather the fire company could not get to work in time to do much good.

—Wm. Miller, on trial for the murder of Sam McKee, was Friday convicted of manslaughter and given four years in the penitentiary. A new trial will probably be asked for; if not granted the case will go to the Court of Appeals.

—As this letter closes at 12 m. Monday counsel are addressing the jury in the case of the Commonwealth of Kentucky vs. George Ward, accused of complicity in the killing of George Wells, at Junction City, in February, 1891. No one of course knows what the jury may do, but a number of lawyers have expressed the opinion that in case of a conviction there will be another reversal by the Court of Appeals, because of certain evidence heard by the jury and of certain arguments made by lawyers for the prosecution.

—H. A. Milton, who under the name of D. H. Probie obtained $25 from the Farmers National Bank last week by means of a forged telegram, will probably be taken back to Jackson, Michigan, Tuesday, as it has been ascertained that he escaped from the penitentiary there on the 18th of this month. In his valise were found letters from his wife and poor old mother, which showed them to be people of intelligence and maybe of standing. Milton is probably one of those reckless characters who, when out of money, will do desperate acts to supply themselves. He does not look like a regular thief.

—One day last week a young woman giving the name of Emma Craig was before the police court on account of a quarrel she had had with another woman of her class, both being prostitutes. She was neatly dressed, pretty and possessed of manners which showed that she had been reared a lady. It came out in the trial that she had been living her present life about four years; that she was a native of Garrard county and had once, for ten months, been a pupil of one of the Danville female colleges. Emma Craig, she said, was not her true name. She had been in Danville but a short time and was sheltered by a negro woman, no white person's house being open to her. She was fined $21.40, and not having the money to pay, was sent to work house where she remained until after dark the same day; then some of her friends, male and female, raised money enough to pay her fine and she was released. A few years ago a number of good people of Danville attempted the reclamation of several such women and in some cases succeeded. Would the time be idly spent to make a like effort in behalf of this poor creature? There is nothing in her appearance or manners to indicate unmistakably what she is. Will she be given a chance to do better?

THE OLD HOMESTEAD.

Ah, here it is, the dear old place! Unchanged through all these years, How like some sweet familiar face. My childhood's home appears. The grand old trees behind the door Still spread their branches wide; The rivers wander as of yore, With sweetly running tide; The distant hills look green and gray, The flowers are blooming wild, And everything looks glad to-day As when I was a child.

Regardless how the years have down, Hall wondering I stand; I stich no fond, endearing tone, I clasp no friendly hand; I think my mother's smile to meet, I love my father's call,

I pause to hear my brother's feet Come bounding through the hall; But silence all around me reigns, A chill creeps through my heart, No trace of those I love remain, And tears unbidden start.

What though the sunbeams fall as fair, What though the budding flowers Still shed their fragrance on the air Within life's golden hours; The loving ones that clustered here These walls may not restore; Voices that filled my youthful ear Will greet my soul no more,

And yet I quit the dear old place With slow and lingering tread, As when we kiss a clay-cold face And leave it with the dead.

(Printed in loving memory of a devoted and true wife, from her own selections.)

The Kellogg powder works, near Huntington, W. Va., exploded some more Sunday, the loss being estimated at $10,000. Six explosions have taken place within 18 months, causing a loss of seven lives, and litigation is pending which, if put through, will remove the establishment on the score of being a nuisance.

The New York Ledger has a three-column story of a hero who woos a heroine because he fell in love with the way she made his shirts. This is the longest shirt tale ever exposed to public view.—Glasgow Times.

MCKINNEY.

—The doctors say the health of our community is generally good. Dr. B. P. Estes is very low and not expected to live.

—Miss Eva Reynolds gave a delightful supper last Tuesday night to a few of her friends, which was highly enjoyed by all present.

—Ice hunters pronounce it 12 inches thick on Green River. All of the ice houses are being filled and some of the barns in McKinney.

—J. O. Shields, of Lexington, was in town a few days ago on very important business, and Clay Hunt, from Pearson & Clark, was on our streets Friday.

—Six of the members of McKinney Lodge, No. 531, F. & A. M., to-wit: F. M. Ware, W. M., E. J. Tanner, S. W.; J. K. Carson, J. W.; E. O. Singleton, S. D.; W. R. Davidson, P. M., attended the Masonic lectures at Harrodsburg last week. The boys came back smiling as if they had met some kinsfolk. Mrs. Dr. Ed M. Estes is visiting her parents at Crab Orchard. J. W. and J. A. Givens have gone South with stock. Ed Paul, our tombstone man, has gone to Tennessee for a few days' stay.

—A very pitiful object was seen at the Commercial Hotel a few nights ago. A negro tramp came in that proved to be a perfect brute, uneducated, frozen so badly that his feet had burst. Unable to write, he had no papers to tell who he was, or where he came from, or where he wanted to go. The proprietor not knowing how to proceed, went for P. M. Davidson and Dr. Ed M. Estes, who responded to his call. The doctor examined him and dressed his feet. Davidon searched him for papers and Anna and Carson, the proprietor put him to bed. On his person was found a Waterbury watch, a knife, two copper cents and a shaving check. A pair of socks and sandals were provided for him, and a good bed to sleep on, with a guard to watch him through the night. Next morning he was fed all he could eat and with his pockets filled, he started north. His face was scarred and also several scars on his hands.

—At Hayden Station.

—Mr. Took Hubble was kicked by a jack he was feeding and had his leg broken.

—R. E. Gaines bought of Duddar Bros. 15 bushels of nice clean clover seed at $7 per bushel.

—W. M. Duddar, proprietor of the Dix River Roller Mill, has ordered a corn-crusher which will be in operation by the first of the week.

—Mr. G. T. McRoberts and granddaughter, Miss Bettie Henderson, of Lowell, has been visiting in this neighborhood. Ben and Will Gaines have returned from Shelbyville.

—Mr. Cope Johnson came near being burned out Friday night, when it was discovered that the fire was under headway in the room above. Mr. Johnson has possession of his father-in-law's farm, Mr. J. M. Beazley, on Logan's Creek.

—S. K. Duddar purchased of E. O. Fretwell, of the Bourbon Stock Farm, at Paris, very desirable and well developed stallion, Jeb Stuart 561, sire of Kitty Patchen, 221, Darkness, 221, Outcrop, 230, by Maubrino Patchen, 1st dam Puss Prall, dam of three in the list and five producing sons by Mark Time.

—Mr. S. K. Duddar was in the K. C. wreck last week. He was whirled thro' a window, but escaped serious injury. We regret to learn that Mr. G. C. Givens will remove to Bourbon. Miss Hattie House entertained quite a number of her friends Thursday evening in honor of Miss Ella Wright, of Stanford, and all had a good time.

—DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Mrs. N. Bedford Forrest, wife of the late Gen. Forrest, died Sunday in Memphis.

—Rutherford B. Hayes' grave has become a part of that peaceful cemetery scene, where he rests beside the body of his beloved Lucy underneath the snow. Death evens up all things and condones all things. Peace to the departed.—Louisville Times.

—Mr. S. G. Tyler, of Louisville, died suddenly at an early hour Sunday morning. He married the widow of Mr. Jas. Huffman, of this place, whose maiden name was Miss Jennie Poe. Mr. Tyler was an excellent Christian gentleman, and many friends here sympathize with the bereaved in the loss of such a good husband.

—Wm. Waddle, father of O. H. Waddle, Esq., of Somerset, died Friday, aged 70. He had been a magistrate of the county for 20 years and was widely known among all classes for his square and honorable decisions on the bench, not one of his cases having ever been reversed by a higher court; and it was his wont to boast that he never taxed a widow the costs in a suit. He left 14 children born to him.

—In a lecture before the Nineteenth Century Club Rev. Joseph C. Price, of Livingston College, showed that the negroes of this country are worth $291,000,000.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. A. V. Sizemore went to Somerton yesterday, where he will hold a couple of weeks' meeting.

—Rev. Dr. J. W. M. Williams has been 42 years continuously in his personal charge as pastor of the first Baptist church, Baltimore.

—The gospel barge, which Bishop Walker, of North Dakota, is to use on the Upper Missouri, is nearly ready to be launched. It has been named "The Missouri Missioner."

—Prof. Milton Elliott, of Kirksville, Madison county, has been engaged by the Christian church at this place, to preach the first and third Sundays of each month.—London Echo.

—It is said that Sam Small has given up evangelistic work and resumed his old position on the Atlanta Constitution. It is mighty hard to wash printer's ink off one's hands, after it once gets hard and set.

—Rev. W. E. Arnold didn't hold services at his church Sunday night, but went to hear Rev. W. A. Staymaker at the Presbyterian church. He requested his congregation to attend also, as he thought such conduct due a preacher just come among us.

—The Hopkinsville Independent says the recent Sam Jones meeting at that place has resulted in 200 additions to the churches of the town. The Baptists, with Rev. John O. Knut, and the Presbyterians, with a distinguished revivalist, are following the meeting up and each church is reaping a harvest of souls.

—Two women and one man were baptized in Sugar Creek, near Tiffin, O., last week. The thermometer registered 14° below zero and ice 14 inches thick had to be cut to get to the water, which had to be agitated during the ceremony with hand rakes to prevent it freezing over between immersions. This way of taking up the Cross is a little too tough for some people, who cannot believe God requires from His followers the suffering that such a usage implies.

—The Chesney, Ind., Sun says: The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church closed last Sunday night. There were 16 accessions to the church, backsliding christians were strengthened in the good cause and the eyes of many unbelievers have been opened to the true light by Uncle Joe Hopper's patient pleading to come to Jesus. We believe evil doing has had a decided backset in town by this revival. Uncle Joe began a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church at Midway Monday night. Go hear him.

—The Chester, Ind., Sun says: The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church closed last Sunday night. There were 16 accessions to the church, backsliding christians were strengthened in the good cause and the eyes of many unbelievers have been opened to the true light by Uncle Joe Hopper's patient pleading to come to Jesus. We believe evil doing has had a decided backset in town by this revival. Uncle Joe began a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church at Midway Monday night. Go hear him.

—The Chester, Ind., Sun says: The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church closed last Sunday night. There were 16 accessions to the church, backsliding christians were strengthened in the good cause and the eyes of many unbelievers have been opened to the true light by Uncle Joe Hopper's patient pleading to come to Jesus. We believe evil doing has had a decided backset in town by this revival. Uncle Joe began a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church at Midway Monday night. Go hear him.

—The Chester, Ind., Sun says: The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church closed last Sunday night. There were 16 accessions to the church, backsliding christians were strengthened in the good cause and the eyes of many unbelievers have been opened to the true light by Uncle Joe Hopper's patient pleading to come to Jesus. We believe evil doing has had a decided backset in town by this revival. Uncle Joe began a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church at Midway Monday night. Go hear him.

—The Chester, Ind., Sun says: The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church closed last Sunday night. There were 16 accessions to the church, backsliding christians were strengthened in the good cause and the eyes of many unbelievers have been opened to the true light by Uncle Joe Hopper's patient pleading to come to Jesus. We believe evil doing has had a decided backset in town by this revival. Uncle Joe began a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church at Midway Monday night. Go hear him.

—The Chester, Ind., Sun says: The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church closed last Sunday night. There were 16 accessions to the church, backsliding christians were strengthened in the good cause and the eyes of many unbelievers have been opened to the true light by Uncle Joe Hopper's patient pleading to come to Jesus. We believe evil doing has had a decided backset in town by this revival. Uncle Joe began a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church at Midway Monday night. Go hear him.

—The Chester, Ind., Sun says: The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church closed last Sunday night. There were 16 accessions to the church, backsliding christians were strengthened in the good cause and the eyes of many unbelievers have been opened to the true light by Uncle Joe Hopper's patient pleading to come to Jesus. We believe evil doing has had a decided backset in town by this revival. Uncle Joe began a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church at Midway Monday night. Go hear him.

—The Chester, Ind., Sun says: The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church closed last Sunday night. There were 16 accessions to the church, backsliding christians were strengthened in the good cause and the eyes of many unbelievers have been opened to the true light by Uncle Joe Hopper's patient pleading to come to Jesus. We believe evil doing has had a decided backset in town by this revival. Uncle Joe began a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church at Midway Monday night. Go hear him.

—The Chester, Ind., Sun says: The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church closed last Sunday night. There were 16 accessions to the church, backsliding christians were strengthened in the good cause and the eyes of many unbelievers have been opened to the true light by Uncle Joe Hopper's patient pleading to come to Jesus. We believe evil doing has had a decided backset in town by this revival. Uncle Joe began a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church at Midway Monday night. Go hear him.

—The Chester, Ind., Sun says: The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church closed last Sunday night. There were 16 accessions to the church, backsliding christians were strengthened in the good cause and the eyes of many unbelievers have been opened to the true light by Uncle Joe Hopper's patient pleading to come to Jesus. We believe evil doing has had a decided backset in town by this revival. Uncle Joe began a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church at Midway Monday night. Go hear him.

—The Chester, Ind., Sun says: The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church closed last Sunday night. There were 16 accessions to the church, backsliding christians were strengthened in the good cause and the eyes of many unbelievers have been opened to the true light by Uncle Joe Hopper's patient pleading to come to Jesus. We believe evil doing has had a decided backset in town by this revival. Uncle Joe began a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church at Midway Monday night. Go hear him.

—The Chester, Ind., Sun says: The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church closed last Sunday night. There were 16 accessions to the church, backsliding christians were strengthened in the good cause and the eyes of many unbelievers have been opened to the true light by Uncle Joe Hopper's patient pleading to come to Jesus. We believe evil doing has had a decided backset in town by this revival. Uncle Joe began a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church at Midway Monday night. Go hear him.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., JANUARY 24, 1893.

W. P. WALTON.

SIX : PAGES.
EVERY FRIDAY.

It is sent out from Frankfort that as many as four of Judge Lindsay's adherents have deserted him and gone over to the McCreary camp. Senator Caldwell, who represents Taylor, Marion and Washington, called a meeting at Campbellsville to get an expression of the will of the people, and Gov. McCreary was found to lead two to one. He has accordingly come out enthusiastically for the gentleman from the 8th district. An effort by the Lindsay men to force a caucus for to-night signal failed, thus securing first blood for McCreary, who doesn't want it held till next week. A conservative estimate of the strength of the three candidates is given at present thus: Lindsay, 41; McCreary, 35; Stone, 23.

The silliest of all appeals to prejudice is that against the corporations, but the present Legislature is anti-corporation or nothing. It therefore seems anomalous that it should be even intimated that Judge Lindsay, a railroad lawyer and a corporation defender generally, will be elected by such body to represent the State in the U. S. Senate. Judge Lindsay is a good man, however, and may lead in votes at present, but the Legislature cannot honor him without falsifying its own record. It will hardly do this. Consequently we sanguinely predict the triumphant election of Gov. McCreary, by far the best equipped man for the position.

The women, God blessem, are God's last and best gift to man and in their sphere are a joy forever to him. But politics is not their sphere, as the results in Wyoming, where they are fully enfranchised, attest. Their influence in it is anything but elevating and their participation lowers their own self-respect and the respect of the other sex for them. The article below points the moral, if it does not adorn the tale: "The Democratic Woman's Club, of Rock Springs, Wyo., has endorsed the candidacy of Richard A. Keenan, a saloon-keeper, for the United States Senatorship, because he is so 'handsome and captivating.'"

It is stated that Mr. Cleveland told a Virginia delegation, which waited on him to secure a promise of the appointment of a former democratic postmaster that he had determined as far as practical to give the offices to new men. This will be bad news to the old office-holders who seem to think they have vested rights to their old positions, but the president-elect is right. Let us have a new deal all around, so that as many as possible can enjoy the pie soon to be cut and parcelled out.

AFTER signing the World's Fair bill, Gov. Brown appointed the old commissioners, save Mr. Young E. Allison, who declined to serve longer, and Representative James, of Muhlenberg, was appointed in his stead. This necessitates an election to fill the vacancy in the House caused by Dr. James' resignation and it has been fixed for Feb. 4. It seems that the governor might have found a man whose appointment would not have caused such additional expense to the State.

The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette rises to remark and inquire: "Kentucky politicians are in a wrangle over Carlisle's successor in the U. S. Senate. Why not compromise on Mr. Henry Watterson?" There are two good reasons. In the first place, he could not be elected as a compromise or in another way and in the second, he says he wouldn't accept the office if tendered to him on a silver platter. All the same, though, he is Kentucky's biggest and brainiest citizen.

ANOTHER man has dropped out of the Senatorial contest. Gov. Brown recognizing the fact that he owed the people something for electing him governor and perhaps seeing that there was no chance for him to be elected Senator, has withdrawn, leaving only Gov. McCreary, Judge Lindsay and Congressman Stone in the ring, with the likelihood that the latter will drop out before the bell rings, leaving the contest between the invincible McCreary and the doubtful Lindsay.

An effort is being made to produce the impression that Gov. McCreary was an anti-Cleveland man. Nothing could be further from the truth. Some time before the convention the governor had occasion to send a letter on other matters, in which he expressed himself personally very warm for Mr. Cleveland, who, he was sure, would be nominated and elected if the New York democrats could be gotten together, and he believed it would be done.

THERE is no man in Kentucky better fitted for senatorial honors than Gov. McCreary. He is capable, conservative, efficient and untiring and would make an ideal member of the Senate. The Legislature would honor itself by giving him the office on the first ballot.

THERE is a regular crusade in England against the adoption of the crinoline absurdity proposed by the fashion makers and over 8,000 women have joined Mrs. Stannard's anti hoop skirt league. Queen Victoria was appealed to for an expression on the subject, but she, as did the Prince of Wales, declined to commit herself. The older of our ladies will remember when hoop-skirts were all the go. They made a woman look like an inverted balloon and had the effect of keeping the man at a respectable distance. This extreme was followed by the other extreme—the pin-back dress, which in many cases was so tightly pinned back that the wearer could not take a full step. Of the two, give us the latter, and let us have an anti-crinoline society in Stanford.

WEST VIRGINIA is small and poor, but she is managed by democrats and is consequently in fine financial shape. She has no debt at all, counts half a million dollars in her treasury and is going to reduce her tax rate from 25 to 20c. The Louisville Times in referring to the matter recalls the words of a distinguished gentleman who, when the State was cut from Virginia during the war, called it "the bastard child of a political rape." Conceived in sin and born in iniquity, West Virginia has risen often to curse its progenitors, who cannot with coaxing, money or other efforts disunite her from her democratic idol. Her largely increased vote for Cleveland shows that she takes less and less stock in the g. o. p. that gave her birth.

This president has appointed Elijah W. Halford, the bloody little Englishman, who has been acting as his private secretary, to be paymaster in the army. The position continues till the holder is 64 years of age, at which time he is retired on half pay. The salary is $2,500 a year, with perquisites that bring it $1,000 or more above that figure. What Lige has done to deserve such honor and emoluments is more than any man but Harrison can find out, and this ought to be the G. A. R.'s night to howl.

The Louisville Critic has an amusing cartoon showing the desperate attempt of Gov. Brown to reach the Senate and his terrific fall on Mitch Alford and Senator Smith, each of whom would have profited by his promotion. Both of the little men are ground to powder, while Mr. Watterson stands off and wonders if the heavens have fallen.

Is there any reason why harassed should be spelled with one "r" and embarrassed with two, except to harass and embarrass those who cannot remember which ought to have the extra "r" and which oughtn't? Our esteemed contemporary, the Louisville Commercial, which gets them mixed, will please stand up and answer.

Editor JAMES M. RICHARDSON, of the Glasgow Times, is said to be an applicant for the collectorship in the 2d district and if the solid endorsement of his editorial friends will secure the position, his ambition will be gratified; though all would dislike to see him leave, even for a time, the profession for which he is so well qualified.

The New York Sun is publishing letters from "Tilden democrats" condemning Mr. Cleveland for attending Mr. Hayes' funeral, but sensible people will applaud him for his commendable action. The Sun's hostility to the president-elect will make it do anything, even to "faking" letters, to carry a point.

Mitch ALFORD will not be governor this time, nor smother time, the advocates of the whipping-post will unite in wishing.

NEWSY NOTES.

Edward Fitzsimmons, a Chicago coin collector, paid $1,300 for an 1804 silver dollar, only four or five of which are known to be in existence.

When men freeze to death in South Texas, it is little wonder that the number of people who believe in the existence of hell fire is decreasing.

At Pittsburgh, Hugh F. Dempsey, district master, workman of the Knights of Labor, was found guilty of administering poison to the Homestead workmen.

Fifteen firemen were buried under a falling wall at a New York warehouse. Four were taken out alive and will probably die and the others were mangled.

Capt. James H. Pine, a prominent citizen of Harper's Ferry, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for attempting to blacken a young lady's character.

Gen. Robert E. Lee's birthday was observed in numerous Southern cities Friday. The day has been made a State holiday in Georgia and was specially honored by the Virginia Society in Atlanta.

The Senatorial deadlock in Montana is as far from a break as ever, and it is not unlikely from present indications that it will last for two weeks yet. Populists are still voting with the democrats, but the republicans have a hope of eventually capturing them.

At Alton Junction, Ill., the Southwestern Limited of the C. C. & St. L. ran into seven loaded oil cars on a side track. The wreck took fire and an explosion scattered the burning oil over passengers and scores of others who had come to see the wreck. 17 persons were roasted to death, 17 others probably fatally burned and 50 or more painfully scorched.

—At Morton Gap, Samuel Davis shot and killed William Webb in a quarrel over a woman.

—One of the anti-silver Senators, after a careful canvass of the Senate, claims that the bill repealing the Sherman silver law will pass, with five votes to spare.

—Kate Heleck confessed to having thrown her baby out of the window into the snow, at Newport, where it froze to death. The inhuman mother has been arrested.

—John Johnson, the crack bicycle rider of Minnesota, broke the world's amateur skating record in the first trial, going a mile in 2:45 3/5, the former record being 2:56.

—Robert George, a nephew of the U. S. Senator of Mississippi, after wounding Capt. Prince, of Italienna, because he refused to let him marry his daughter, killed himself.

—W. F. Gray, managing editor of a Meridian, Miss., daily paper, was convicted of forgery at Dallas, Tex., and his punishment fixed at two years in the penitentiary.

—The river convention at Frankfort decided to push the claims of Kentucky river for $1,000,000; Big Sandy for $500,000 and Green and Barren rivers for a similar amount.

—The body of John Cunningham, a machinist, was found about eight miles from Morganfield, in a corn field, where he had frozen to death while in a stupor caused by drink.

—Long Island Sound is frozen three miles and over out from the shore, something which has not happened but once or twice before in the memory of the oldest inhabitant along the coast.

—Senator Kenna left a widow and six children in comparative poverty and the West Virginia delegation in Congress will see that she gets the Charleston postoffice, which pays $2,400 a year.

—The ice gorge in the Ohio broke at Belmont and the jam sent the government steamer Kiris to the bottom, with three negro deck hands, who were drowned. The vessel was valued at $50,000.

—The population of London now exceeds that of New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Chicago combined and these four are the only American cities having one million or more inhabitants.

—The steamer La Champaigne, which left New York Saturday, carried $4,100,000 in gold, bound for Havre. Exports of specie from New York during the week amounted to $4,706,639, of which $1,436,400 was gold.

—The story of the rise and fall of the "boom" is well told by the figures showing the number of new industries started in the South in a series of years—1889, 5,135; 1890, 3,917; 1891, 3,211; 1892, 2,688. And yet the South is fairly prosperous.

—John Armstrong Chanler, husband of Amelie Hayes, was one of the leaders of a party of citizens at Charlottesville, W. Va., who tarred, feathered and ran out of the neighborhood an alleged imposter who posed as Englishman of good family.

—Over 6,000 women in the United States act as post-masters. The largest number in any State, 463, is in Pennsylvania, and 460 in Virginia. There are 236 in Ohio, 243 in New York, 216 in Georgia, 210 in Texas and 209 in Kentucky. Alaska has only 1.

—It is an interesting fact, considering the numerical strength of the Smiths, that there has never been a president of that name or a Senator of the United States since 1857. The Springfield Republican rightly thinks that this last named fact lends interest in the Senatorial candidacy of James Smith, Jr., of Newark, N. J.

—In round figures the war cost the North $6,500,000,000. The North enlisted 3,000,000 soldiers. The South enlisted about 1,200,000. The North lost 100,000 killed in battle or died of wounds, and 200,000 who died from disease, mainly from their own neglect. What the South lost has not been estimated—probably as many as the North.

—The action of the Boston Transcript in volunteering to pay, for an indefinite period, to the widow of the reporter who was killed while on duty at a recent fire, the salary he was earning at the time of his death, is commendable on the part of a great newspaper, and will do as much to add to the loyalty of the men of its staff as anything else that could have been done. Newspaper reporters are appreciative of appreciation and never forget it.

—At Aberdeen, Miss., on the 29th, the thermometer registered 51 degrees below zero—the coldest weather experienced there in many years. The ground was covered with 8 to 10 inches of snow. At Starkville, Miss., the mercury went to nine degrees above zero—the coldest weather for ten years. The fields lay upon them six inches of snow. A distance from Charleston, S. C., states that the cold weather has caused great suffering among the negro population. One man was frozen to death, the first recorded event of the kind known in 200 years.

—At Farm and Trade Items.

—W. A. Hail sold to Johnson 6 shoats for $20.

—Beazley Bros. sold to G. A. Peyton a milk cow for $25.

—J. T. Hocker sold to Jerry Briscoe 10 5/2 pound shoats at 6c.

—Eubanks Bros. sold to Holdam & McClure 16 shoats at 6c.

—For information address JAS. BARKER, G. P. A., Chicago, W. G. CRUSH, D. V. A., Louisville.

THAT CLEARANCE SALE

IS STILL ON AT THE

LOUISVILLE : STORE.

Don't put it off too long as the special things won't last much longer. All wool flannels at 15, 20 and 25 cents; men's wool red flannels shirts only 50 cents; men's allwoolovershirts at cost.

Shoes At Cost!

Gent's fine shoe $1; custom made, $1.50; fine calf shoe $2.75, hand made shoe $3.

CLOTHING DEPARTMENT.

Men's brown cheviot suit $4.50, men's all wool suit $7.

OVERCOATS : AT : PRIME : COST.

Knee pants, 25 cents, men's working pants, $1. BRUSSELS CARPETS AT COST.

THE LOUISVILLE STORE,

Stanford, Ky. A. H. YS, Manager.

Stanford Female College.

J. M. HUBBARD, A. M., President.

Spring Session Tuesday, January 24th, 1893.

Full corps of Conservatory and Normal School teachers. Superior courses in Literature, Music and Art. Excellent boarding department. Catalogues and circulars furnished on application.

R. ZIMMER

Dealer in

Fancy Groceries, Fruits

And

Confectioneries.

Baker's Bread Always on Hand

Watch this space next week. It belongs to STEPHENS & KNOX, the enterprising Rowland merchants, who will tell you something to your interest.

McKINNEY BROS.

CAN

SAVE YOU MONEY

ON

Carving Sets, Pocket & Table Cutlery,

Scissors, Butcher Knives, Knives and Forks for Children, Nut Crackers and Picks, &c.

Full Stock of GROCERIES, all Fresh and Prices Low of Course.

A. C. SINE

J. N. MENEFEE

SINE & MENEFEE,

Proprietors of The

STANFORD LUMBER YARD,

Office and Yard Depot Street, Stanford, Ky.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., JANUARY 24, 1893

R. C. WALTON, Bus. Manager

MEANS BUSINESS.

ENGRAVING beautifully and artistically done at A. R. Penny's.

Buy your books and school supplies of all kinds from A. R. Penny, who sells them at publisher's prices.

HAVE your watch, clock and jewelry repaired at A. R. Penny's. All work warranted.

REMEMBER that all silverware, watches, rings, &c., bought at A. R. Penny's will be engraved free of charge.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs. J. T. RAY, of Parksville, has been visiting Mrs. Susan Harris.

Dr. R. C. MORIAN is confined to his room with a very deep cold.

Mrs. WILL B. BREWER, of Danville, is visiting Mr. W. C. Hutchings.

Mrs. T. W. GARNET is back from a month's visit to relatives at Cloverport.

Mrs. E. C. WALTON went up to Lexington yesterday to visit relatives.

Miss KATE LANDRUM, of Lancaster, is the guest of Mrs. W. C. Hutchings.

Mrs. R. W. LILLARD was here Saturday on his return from a commercial tour of Virginia.

Miss BETTIE PAXTON went to Lexington yesterday to attend the funeral of Mr. S. G. Tyler.

Mr. AND MRS. T. J. FOSTER went over Jessamine Saturday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Metcalf.

Mrs. H. L. STRICKER, of Crab Orchard, entered her daughter, Miss Eva, in Stanford Female College yesterday.

DR. J. F. PEYTON has moved into his new office in the new block and is ready to wait on the sickly portion of the public.

DR. A. S. PRICE is elegantly fixed up in his new quarters in the Owsley block and better prepared than ever to serve the public.

Misses JULIA STAGG, of Hustonville, and Kate Mayes, of Springfield, who have been the guests of Mrs. T. J. Foster, returned to Hustonville Saturday.

MR. CHARL. D. WEAREN is favorably spoken of as a probable candidate for mayor at the coming April election. -Paris News. Mr. Weld was a former typist on this paper and made quite a number of friends during his stay.

E. Y. KINGSBURY, formerly of the Glasgow Times, but now reformed and making an honest living traveling for the Southern Coffee Company, was here Friday and made us a pleasant call, in company with his old friend, Rev. W. A. Slaymaker.

CITY AND VICINITY.

See Banks, the Jeweler, in the new block.

COAL vases and coal holes cheap at A. A. Warren's.

Your account is ready. Call and settle it now you, A. R. Penny.

WANTED—Boards by day or week. Good rooms. Mrs. T. M. White.

HATS, neckties and dress shirts. Full stock just received. H. J. McRoberts.

WANTED.—Three shares of stock in First National Bank. John J. McRoberts.

BEST N. O. Molasses, Sorghum, Maple and Caramel Syrups at A. A. Warren's.

We are making a specialty of Arizona cook stoves. Every one fully warranted. W. H. Wearen & Co.

BONDS, to the wife of R. E. Gaines, on Saturday night, a boy. He has been named for his father.

J. S. Hocken offers a splendid farm of 100 acres for sale in another column, well improved and close to town.

PERSONS indebted to the dissolved firm of Bruce & Yeager will please settle at once with me. I can be found at all times at the stable. T. C. Yeager.

MARSHAL NEWLAND arrested Jess Myers yesterday, for entitling Simmer Hayden, also colored, while in a fight. Trial is set for 10 o'clock this morning. The wound is not serious.

The report comes from Hustonville that Job Solomon, who recently set up a cheap store there, has skipped by the light of the moon, leaving sundry creditors to mourn his untimely departure, among whom we are one of which.

My hack will meet both of the day trains and passengers will be hauled to any portion of town for 10 cents. I will also call for passengers in any part of town for the same money. Trunks carried to or from depot for 10 cents. Departing passengers will please leave orders at the Myers House and they will be promptly called for. P. W. Green.

MR. GUS HOFFMAN, of the Crab Orchard Springs Hotel, gave a complimentary banquet last night in honor of the 15th anniversary of the marriage of Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Dick. The menu, printed at this office, is both handsome and comprehensive. Dr. Dick is in charge of the Keeley Cure, at which there are now over 30 men trying to have themselves relieved of the cursed desire for strong drink.

PAY YOUR TUITION NOW.

REMEMBER M. F. Elkin pays the highest market price for furs, beef hides, &c., in cash.

TAKE your eggs to the Cash Bargain Store and get 30 cents for them. B. F. Jones & Son.

THE Columbian stamps are a fraud. They are as large as a porous plaster and about as illshapen and ugly.

FOR RENT.—A very desirable room with dressing-room attached; pleasantly located. Call at this office.

A dog show Saturday night and a goat exhibition to-morrow night looks like Walton's Opera House is about to be turned into a menagerie.

My accounts are ready and due and I will take it as a favor if those indebted to me will call at once and settle, as I am in need of money. H. C. Ripley.

THE Q. & C. will run a half-rate excursion to-morrow to De Leon Springs, Fla. Tickets good till May 1. Let's all go and stay till the weather gets warmer.

THE weather service prophet at Louisville, who, we hope, has honor in his own country, as well as others, is of the opinion that the backbone of winter is broken, and thinks that the periods of cold weather between now and spring will be brief.

JAMES H. YEAGER has bought out Mr. I. M. Bruce's interest in the livery firm of Bruce & Yeager and the style of the firm in the future will be Yeager & Yeager. Mr. Bruce is undecided as to what he will do, but for the present will attend to his express and oil business.

THE Richmond Register apparently disposed of a serious matter as follows: The idea of a railroad from Stanford to Danville to lower freight charges and produce competition between the L. & N. and Cincinnati Southern is a perfect joke. In 20 minutes after the line was completed the C. S. would have swallowed one-half of it and the L. & N. the other. And faith and hoggo! what are we talking about?

A "STUDENT" named Tyler from Nelson county, just entered at the Keeley Cure, Crab Orchard, while laboring under delirium tremens got away at 3 o'clock Saturday morning, when the mercury registered below zero and made his way to Rowland. Marshal Lee and Judge Ward Moore captured and took him back without trouble, after assuring him that they were taking him home.

THE Widow Murphy's Goat, which will be presented at Walton's Opera House to-morrow night, 25th, by the talented comedian, Alfred Keely, and a strong cast, is purely a comedy-drama and is said to be extremely funny. It is full of songs, Irish reels, dances, &c., and it is claimed that there is not a dull moment from beginning to end. Secure a seat at once at W. B. McRoberts' drug store. Admission 25, 50 and 75c.

THE second meeting of the Glee Club, which was at the pleasant home of Miss Louise Bailey, Friday night, proved fully as enjoyable as the first and was attended by the following: Miss Gertrude Howard and Dr. A. S. Price; Miss Annie Alecorn and P. M. McRoberts; W. B. McKinney and Miss Nan Baughman; W. H. Warren and Miss Kit Baughman; Miss Louisa Tipton and Will Severance; Miss Olivia Summers and Will Baughman; Miss Eliza Whitman and Wallace Withers; Miss Mary Alecorn and G. A. Lackey, Jr.; Miss Sue Baughman and J. H. Baughman. When all had arrived, the names of the ladies were written on cards which the gentlemen drew, and each had to hem the apron of the girl which luck gave to him. A prize was offered for the best hemmed apron and for the worst. Will Severance won the first, which was a handsome whisk brush, with celluloid holder, and Jim Baughman the "booby" prize—a bag of matches. Mr. McRoberts made the presentation speeches in a happy vein and the whole thing proved very amusing and mirth-provoking. At the proper hour a rich repast of cake, cream, fruits, salads, crackers, cheese and coffee was served and greatly enjoyed and at 1 o'clock the merry party broke up and returned to their homes greatly pleased with the entertainment and the lovely entertainer.

RETRIVED.—A few weeks ago the Interior Journal contained this personal: "Misses Lillie and Blanche Hickey, of Georgetown, are visiting Miss Emily Alexander," which will make this story taken from the Cincinnati Enquirer, somewhat of local interest: "Enticed away from a good home with promises of obtaining good positions by a being who called himself a man. Then bewildered by liquor and taken to a house of ill fame. That is the gist of the stories told by two beautiful young girls who were last night rescued from Susie Smith's. They said their names were Lillie and Blanche Hickey, the daughter and the step-daughter of James H. Hickey, a blacksmith living at Georgetown, Ky. Lillie is a very pretty blonde, 19 years old, and Blanche is a brunnette, and said she was not quite 18 years old. The girls said that they met a nice young man in Georgetown, who was a very pleasant companion, and treated them very gentlemanly. They became a little bit dissatisfied with their home because their father was not able to buy them fine dresses and give them as much money as they wanted. The girls desired to be independent and had for some time been figuring how they could earn their own living. The young man told them he could get them both lucrative positions in Cincinnati making button holes, with good wages and they would not have to work hard. After thinking the matter over, they decided to leave home on the sly, which they did. They wandered through the city, taking in the sights for some time. The "nice young man" inveigled them into several saloons and they drank a number of glasses of beer and then got light-headed. He then showed them to Susie Smith's. After they got sobered up they began to realize their positions and told their story to the landlady, who in turn called in the officers. They were sent to the House of Detention and their father will be communicated with."

DETROIT, CITY.—Capt. Thomas Richards has rented the Commercial Hotel and will soon be ready to accommodate the public. There is not a better hotel man in the country than the genial captain.—Messrs. John Shelly, Ex-Marshal Evans and Embry Beasley are all very sick. The former has been laid up for over two months with bladder trouble.—Misses Alice and Laura Hobble took the train Friday for Lexington, where they will live in the future, very much to the regret of their Lincoln county friends.—A number of the merchants have adopted the cash system and all say they are well pleased.—Both of the monument firms here have closed shop on account of cold weather.—The monthly pay-rolls of the planing mill, the saw factory and the two railroads amount to over $10,000.—James Bloom, of the southern portion of the State, has opened a furniture factory and is doing a good business.—The brass band, Capt. Richards leader, is making fine progress.

MY hack will meet both of the day trains and passengers will be hauled to any portion of town for 10 cents. I will also call for passengers in any part of town for the same money. Trunks carried to or from depot for 10 cents. Departing passengers will please leave orders at the Myers House and they will be promptly called for. P. W. Green.

MR. GUS HOFFMAN, of the Crab Orchard Springs Hotel, gave a complimentary banquet last night in honor of the 15th anniversary of the marriage of Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Dick. The menu, printed at this office, is both handsome and comprehensive. Dr. Dick is in charge of the Keeley Cure, at which there are now over 30 men trying to have themselves relieved of the cursed desire for strong drink.

KILLEN.—Old man Turner, who recently moved to the East End of this county from Bell, was accidentally shot in the leg the other day by a nephew and bled to death before the flow could be stopped.

CLARK COUNTY people, who lose $86,000 by the failure of the Merchants National Bank, of Dallas, Texas, are talking of instituting criminal proceedings against the officers. Lincoln county capitalists are also in the soup to the extent of about $30,000 stock in the broken bank.

BRO. SMITH, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, says it was in Laurel and not Rockcastle that so many applicants for teachers' certificates failed. If our memory serves us right, the article appeared in the local columns of the Signal, where news of the county is supposed to be found. Look at your files and see if we are correct.

MR. W. H. HUMPHREY is the "tradingest" man in town. Yesterday he bought out the grocery business of Dr. J. K. Van-Ardsdale at cost and carriage and went to visiting at once. He will continue the business there and keep a man at his other store to close out the clothing and gents' furnishing goods. Dr. Van-Ardsdale is at present undecided as to his future.

For some time W. H. Wearen & Co. have been running a local notice saying they would buy 100,000 dozen eggs at 27c and 100,000 pounds of butter at 25c. As the transaction would call for $52,500, it has created much interest in all parts of the State that the INTERIOR JOURNAL circulates, and we have received several letters in regard to it. A firm at Franklin wrote us Saturday that they could supply the requisite amount of eggs and butter at once and would ship them if Mr. Wearen said so. Mr. Wearen didn't say so, however, unless the firm would take pay in trade, and besides, he advocates in protection home industries. Lincoln county eggs and butter are good enough for him and his customers. It will be observed that he has taken out that notice. He believes in advertising, but this one paid him too well.

FEBRUARY 13TH, 1893, will be offered publicly and sold on that day at 10 o'clock, P. M., before the court-house door in the high street.

Terms.—Purchase will be required to pay one-third in cash and the balance in two equal installments, due in 1 and 2 years, with interest at 6 per cent per annum. Notes to be secured by lien on land.

J. S. HOIKER, President.

For the last three days the weather has been such as to make a man glad that he is living. An unpredicted cold wave slipped in on us Thursday night, sending the mercury down to 5° below zero Friday morning, but it began quickly to moderate, till a pretty fair temperature was reached. Saturday the thermometer marked 40°, the highest it has been for over a month, and Sunday and yesterday were as bright and beautiful above as it was sloppy and slushy below. The backbone of the longest cold spell we remember seems to be broken, though this dispatch received yesterday is not very reassuring: "Fair, colder Tuesday morning."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FARM FOR SALE.

The First National Bank of Stanford offers for sale

A VERY DESIRABLE FARM,

Containing 100 ACRES OF LAND, situated in Lincoln county, Ky., at the junction of the Lancaster and Stanford Turnpike roads and the Rush Creek road, about one-half mile from Stanford. It is bounded on the east by the Rush Branch Pike; on the west by farm of John Bright; on the north by the land of Mr. Sutton and on the south by the farm of H. S. Withers. This farm has a good dwelling of 6 rooms, a large stable and a large barn house. It is well watered and has about 10 acres in wheat. Full possession will be given on March 1st, 1893. If this farm is not sold privately by

THE NATIONAL

FEBRUARY 13TH, 1893,

it will be offered publicly and sold on that day at 10 o'clock, P. M., before the court-house door in the high street.

Terms.—Purchase will be required to pay one-third in cash and the balance in two equal installments, due in 1 and 2 years, with interest at 6 per cent per annum. Notes to be secured by lien on land.

J. S. HOIKER, President.

THE NATIONAL

Building & Loan

ASSOCIATION,

OF LOUISVILLE.

Is the strongest, safest and most prosperous institution of the kind doing business in the State.

John H. Leathers, President,

John B. Pirtle, V. President,

A. G. Langham, Sec. & Treas.,

C. M. Phillips, Gen'l Manager.

BOARD AT STANGORD.

COL. T. P. HILL, President,

E. C. WALTON, V. President,

A. C. SINE, Sec. & Treas.,

H. HELM, J. S. RICE, Agents.

At Walton's Opera House.

Wednesday, Jan. 25

ALFRED : KELGY,

From his enormous New York City success at the New Park Theatre in his new screamer,

Widow Murphy's Goat,

Under the management of

COL. : Theodore : Hoppenheimer.

New and Original Songs,

New Streaks of Fun.

London's Greatest Success

Play one year at the Grand Opera House Chicago, during the World's Fair.

Dancing, Singing and Laughter

Galore.

And it won't cost your way again in two years.

CAN YOU MISS IT !

PUBLIC SALE !

As we have rented our farm and will move to Indiana the first of Feb., we will sell the highest bidder at our place ½ mile from Hubble, no</

ublished Every Tuesday and Friday
AT $2 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE
When not so paid $2.50 will be charged.

K. C. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Train leaves Rowland at 7:00 a. m., returning 9:30 p. m.

L. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Mail train going North..... 10 a. m.
Express train " South..... 12:30 p. m.
Express train " South..... 1:30 p. m.
Local Freight North..... 2:30 p. m.
South..... 3:30 p. m.
The latter trains also carry passengers.
The above is calculated on standard time. Solar time is about 30 minutes faster.

QUEEN & CRESCENT ROUTE.

Trains pass Junction City as follows:
South-bound—Florida Special 12:30 p. m.; Fast
Mail 1:30 p. m.; Fast Line 2:30 a. m.; Blue Grass
Special arrives at 3:00 p. m.
North-bound—Blue Grass Special leaves at 6:00
a. m.; Fast Mail 1:30 p. m.; Florida Special 4:45
p. m.; Fast Line 5:15 a. m.

A Can of Tarter Baking Powder, 1 lb. cost of leavening strength—Latest United States Government Food Report.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.,
106 Wall street, New York.

READ THIS.

I am now handling Arriano meat and am doing my own work and can sell for cash at 6.8 and to cents a pound. Please give it a trial. It is said to be the finest on the market by those who have tried it.

THE RILEY HOUSE
F. B. RILEY, Proprietor,
London, - - - Kentucky.

I have moved to my new hotel and am better prepared than ever to accommodate the public Good Livery attached and every convenience decreed. Give me a call.

FRANK RILEY,

Notice to the Traveling Public.
I have had....

THE SHELTON HOUSE

At Rowland repainted and nicely furnished and have in connection with Hotel one of the best accommodations in the State, open day and night; a night waitress and maid. In the winter we have a large room of one of the best Mineral water in the State and for reference to water, call on Mr. and Mrs.
G. W. Patrick, Louisville. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ingram, Erin, Tenn., A. A. Warren, Stanford, Dr.
D. E. Proctor, G. W. Brainerd, and Mrs. T. W.
Hollingshead, Rowland, and Mrs. F. J. Jones,
New Haven, Conn. Greenhouse. Rates $2 per day. J. M. Potney, clerk. Give me a call.
J. W. CARRIER, Prop.

DR. W. B. PENNY
Dentist.

Office South side Main street, in office vacatated by Dr. L. E. Huffman, Stanford, Ky.

DENTO.

For the painless extraction of teeth and other minor surgery. I have tested its virtue sufficiently to know.

FOR SALE.

Nineteen good Ewes and also one thoroughbred southdown Buck; one 1,500 pound corn-fed, fat year Old Steer; 7 yearling Mare Mules; good colfie and good Mules.

D. M. CREIGHTON,
Kingsville, Lincoln county, Ky.

FARM FOR SALE.

I will sell privately my Farm at 50 Acres on the Danville & Stanford line, three miles from Stanford. It's well improved, with dwelling of five rooms, new barn and all necessary outbuildings; also has fine spring. Call on me on the premises or address me at Stanford, Ky.

EUGENE KELLEY.

LUMBER. I will start up next week a SAW MILL, on the Somerset pike, eight miles from Stanford, and will have 70,000 feet of good oak and poplar lumber for sale. I will sell at the most reasonable rates and invite all who want lumber to give me a call.

JACOB HAEFLIGER, Ottenheims.

Falls Branch Jellico Coal Co.,
Miners and shippers of the GENUINE Original Jellico Coal.

We are the sole agents for Stanford and Rowland. Office corner of Depot street and railroad crossing.

HIGGINS & WATTS

THE COFFEY HOUSE

STANFORD, KY.

JOSEPH COFFEY, Prop'r.

This Hotel, renovated and refurbished, is now in full charge and I intend to conduct it so as to not only maintain its high reputation, but to add to its long list of friends. Special accommodations for commercial travelers and fine rooms for the display of samples.

A First-Class Saloon!
And BILLIARD and POOL ROOMS attached
JOSEPH COFFEY.

THE TACTLESS MAN.HE SAYS THE RIGHT THING AT THE WRONG TIME.

No Amount of Power in a Man Can Compensate for Engulfant Conduct Toward Women, Says Ella Wheeler Wilcox.
Some Instances That Point a Moral.

(Copyright, 1888, by American Press Association.
All rights reserved.)

Women Like Praise.
Jack—I'll tell you what's the matter, George; you don't praise your wife enough. Even if things don't go right, there's no use growling. Praise her efforts to please, whether they are successful or not. Women like praise and lots of it.

George—All right; I'll remember it. George—at dinner same day—My dear, this pie is just lovely! It's delicious! Ever so much better than those my mother used to make. She couldn't equal this pie if she tried a month.

George's Wife—Hm! You've made fun of every pie I ever made, and now—

George—But this is lovely.

George's Wife—This came from the baker's—New York Weekly.

Getting His Money's Worth.

THE man who flatters every woman he meets and has ready made shopworn compliments in store is by far more execrable than the man who cannot pay a merited compliment, and who says unflattering and blunt things with an idea that he is being man and honest.

It is a man's duty to be gallant to woman so long as she is womanly. Be she old or young, married or single, she appreciates refined gallantry from a boy or man and misses the absence of it.
No amount of strength or power on the part of a man compensates for utter lack of taste in his deportment toward her.

I was passing out of my door one day with a young lady guest when we encountered on the steps a young gentleman who was about to ring the bell.

"Oh, are you still here?" he said, with evident pleasure in his voice. "I supposed you had gone."

What could have been more tactless and blundering? Why did he not say,
"I feared you might have gone! How fortunate I am to find you still here!"

He was really pleased to see her. His face and voice showed that. But his unfortunate phrase told her bluntly that his call was not intended for her.

Another young lady guest of mine was requested to lead a german with a gentleman at whose home a pretty girl was visiting. The day after the german took place the gentleman was calling, and I said,
"I was surprised to find that Miss A., your mother's guest, does not dance."

"Yes," he replied, "it was a great disappointment to me."

Of course my friend, who had danced with him and had felt complimented at his choice of her as a partner, at once realized that she had served as a substitute because the lady he preferred could not dance. How easily he could have concealed his disappointment.

The man who compliments end at the cost of another is an unfortunate sort of being.

I was once in a small company of people where the hostess found it necessary to request a moment's assistance of one of her men guests. The young man had been sitting on a divan for a considerable time chatting with a bright, talkative woman. "Mr. A., may I ask you to excuse yourself for a moment," said the hostess, "and come over here."

"With great pleasure," cried the thoughtless, well meaning fellow, as he sprang to his hostess' side.

"If I had known it would be such a pleasure to you I would have excused you long ago," said the woman with whom whom he had been chattering.

"I really think she was provoked at my leaving her so abruptly," said the stupid fellow when referring to the matter. "but how could I do otherwise when my hostess called me?"

A man like that should live apart from women and confine his society to his own sex.

Some one chance to mention the hour in the hearing of a gifted and educated man one day, who had been conversing for some time with his hostess.

"What, so early still?" he exclaimed.
"I had an idea it was much later."

"I am sorry you find the time so long in my house," said the hostess coldly to she moved away and left her guest to his merited discomfort. Talent and learning are ill bestowed upon a man with no more refinement or taste than mine remarked.

Even the fellow who tells you that he is surprised you take sugar in your coffee and says "sweets to the sweet" when offering you bombs is to be tolerated in preference. One can only bore you at most while the others infronit and wound.

There is a fine line between gallantry and flattery. Men do not understand the difference between the two. No man need be a brute to avoid being a loutsome flatterer, and no man need flatter to avoid being rude.

I know a man who tells every woman he sees in evening dress that she has lost the arms of the Venus de Milo.
I heard him say it to a pudgy woman who weighed 200 and within an hour repeat it to a human skeleton. Both women were offended and thought the man was making sport of their misfortune when in fact he was trying to be agreeable.

The pudgy woman possessed fine teeth and the skeleton fine eyes. A man with more brain who desired to pay a compliment would have observed these points, but this fellow had made it a habit to compliment arms, and he was no respecter of persons.

The man who is not born with tact and who has never studied women needs training by some wise dame before he attempts compliments.

That hat becomes you much more than your hats usually do." I heard a man remark to a lady one day, and the lady was highly indignant, as she well might be. He had no business to speak of her costume at all if he could not turn a more pleasing phrase than that, with a less unfortunate interpretation.

Let our young American men study the art of paying delicate and tasteful compliments to women, and let them strive to avoid stupid and brusque remarks which wound and offend without serving any useful purpose.

ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

Deserving Praise.
We desire to inform our citizens, that, for years
we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Dr. King's Sarsaparilla and Biscuit Bitters, and have never handled remedies that will not have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time and we are ready to refund the purchase price if satisfied with the results. We offer a money-back guarantee if you do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. A. R. Penny, druggist.

The success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in effecting a speedy cure of Colds, Croup and Mumps. Men, women and children of all ages, say that it has gained a reputation second to none in that vicinity. Jas. M. Queen, of Johnston, W.
Va., says it is the best he ever used. B. F. Jones,
Cough Remedy. This is the best he ever used.
It is intended especially for Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough, 50-cent bottles made by W. B. McRoberts, druggist, Stanford, Ky.

In buying a cough medicine for children " says
H. A. Walker, a prominent druggist of Ogden, Utah, "I am not afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This is the best I have found.
A friend is always sure to follow. I particularly recommend Chamberlain's because I have found it to be safe and reliable. It is intended especially for Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough, 50-cent bottles made by W. B. McRoberts, druggist, Stanford, Ky.

A Million Friends.
A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough and Croup. If you have never used this Cough Medicine, try it. If you have ever used this Cough Medicine, try it again. It will convince you that it has wonderfully relieved the sufferings of cases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or more.
Money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at A. R.
Penny's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no pay required.

It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

Before the Matinee.

The matinee woman with her two friends approached the box office.

"What's the price of parquet seats?"

"One fifty," said the box office agent politely.

"That much apiece?"

"Yes, ma'am, apiece."

"Couldn't you let me have three for $2.50?"

"No, ma'am."

"How mean! Couldn't you let me have two seats and a general admission for that?"

"No, ma'am. General admission fifty cents."

"Well, give me two, then. (With sanc-casm,) I suppose you don't want the odd
quarter too?"

"No, ma'am."

"Well, give me two, then. (With sanc-casm,) I suppose you don't want the odd
quarter too?"

"No, ma'am."

"Well, give me two, then. (With sanc-casm,) I suppose you don't want the odd
quarter too?"

"No, ma'am."

"Well, give me two, then. (With sanc-casm,) I suppose you don't want the odd
quarter too?"

"No, ma'am."

"Well, give me two, then. (With sanc-casm,) I suppose you don't want the odd
quarter too?"

"No, ma'am."

"Well, give me two, then. (With sanc-casm,) I suppose you don't want the odd
quarter too?"

"No, ma'am."

"Well, give me two, then. (With sanc-casm,) I suppose you don't want the odd
quarter too?"

"No, ma'am."

"Well, give me two, then. (With sanc-casm,) I suppose you don't want the odd
quarter too?"

"No, ma'am."

"Well, give me two, then. (With sanc-casm,) I suppose you don't want the odd
quarter too?"

"No, ma'am."

"Well, give me two, then. (With sanc-casm,) I suppose you don't want the odd
quarter too?"